

Each year Cascadia Community College presents awards to individuals who have made a positive impact on our community. Please complete the application to nominate an individual who you believe should receive one of our Founders Awards or our top award given for student leadership, The Brett Webster Award. Awards can be given to any student enrolled in at least one credit at Cascadia in the fall, winter, and spring quarters of the year in which the award is given, provided that student has at least a 2.5 cumulative GPA in courses taken at Cascadia. If you require additional space, please attach extra sheets to this application. The deadline for nominations is Friday, April 15 at 5 PM. Nomination materials may be turned in to Donna Shepardson at the Information Desk on the first floor of CC1/2 or emailed to dshepardson@cascadia.edu.

STUDENT LEADERSHIP AWARDS

Founders Community Award

The Founders Community Award recipient has dedicated their time and efforts to enhancing the culture and spirit of the Cascadia community. This individual exemplifies what it means to be a part of this community and encourages others to be involved in shaping our core identity.

Founders Environmental Stewardship Award

The Founders Environmental Stewardship Award is given to the student who exemplifies Cascadia's commitment to responsible environmental stewardship. This individual models active learning, thinking, interacting and communicating green practices, sustainability and environmental education, and encourages others to do the same.

Founders Diversity Award

The Founders Diversity Award encourages a culture of pluralism, diversity and equity within our campus community. The recipient of this award has made possible the expression of thoughts, ideas, voices, and experiences that foster an inclusive and welcoming environment for all.

Brett Webster Award for Exemplary Leadership

The Brett Webster Award for Exemplary Leadership, created in recognition of Cascadia's first student government president, is the highest level of recognition any student can receive. This award is presented to the student who has demonstrated a clear mission, goal, or vision for the future of Cascadia through their thoughts, actions, and contributions, and who has made a lasting difference in the continued development of Cascadia's community.

All Cascadia community members are eligible to nominate students for awards, and self-nominations are welcomed. Nominated students will also have the option of submitting one letter of support from someone at the college, a resume, and a paragraph detailing his/her future plans. Students who are selected as finalists for the Brett Webster Award will be invited to take part in an interview with the Selection Committee.

Award recipients will receive a plaque at the Honors and Leadership Award Ceremony and will be listed on perpetual plaques on display in Kodiak Corner.
