V. Special Guests –

VI. Officer Reports –

a. President (Vacant):

b. Vice President (Kimberley):

i. Dividing up projects

1. Set deadlines for projects and find members to lead the projects. Regarding commitments with UWB, especially with Farmer's Market, CSG should be present, but it is not necessarily a priority. UWB intentions is to provide security for students who are hesitant to contact security services. CSG believes that we should support security services and market the services that already exist. Kim will fill out the graphic design request to have a poster created.
2. CSG decided that the student discount program should be a priority. Kim and Lindsey will decide on a time to go visit businesses.

c. Director of Budget and Finance (Christopher):

Minutes

- i. Dr. Durgan would like Christopher and Kim to attend his class.
Chris will provide an info sheet about clubs to the class after the meeting today.
 - ii. Christopher cannot attend the Commuter Task Force meeting this Thursday at 2 pm, he is asking for another member of CSG to attend the meeting in his place. Kim will attend the meeting in his place.
 - iii. Legislative rally on February 5th. Christopher and Becky believe that it is a good idea to have a representative to attend the rally. The rally is 12-1pm. CSG cannot attend the rally due to conflicts with classes. Becky said that CSG can set up a meeting with the legislators at a separate time from the rally so that more members can attend.
- d. Director of Public Relations and Technology (Kira):
- i. Student voting email from Kai
 1. Kira wanted to consult all of CSG before formulating a response. Becky stated that the reason Cascadia uses the selection process is due to the lack of participation from

Minutes

- b. January 27th is the Legislative Reception. Meghan Walker will provide a ride to and from the event at 3pm. If Christopher cannot get out of class by then, a college car will be provided.
 - c. Time sheets are due Thursday instead of Friday because Becky and Shandy will be at a meeting. Also, be sure to update the time sheets for the new minimum wage.
 - d. If CSG wants to increase position wages, this is the time to draft a proposal since the budgets will be looked at next month. Christopher suggested that CSG positions should be allowed to work 19 hours a week instead of 15. Becky and Shandy are already going to raise the wages by 20 cents. Becky believes that it is okay for CSG to ask for $10 an hour for student government positions. CSG wants to propose $10 an hour and allow 19 working hours a week.
