VI. Officer Reports:

- a. President, Atlas Turner: No Report
- b. Vice President, Daniel Perez:
 - i. Options for Attendance

Some ideas to increase club attendance during club council:

On top of the rules we currently have, an addition to the constitution will be that if any two consecutive meetings are missed, the club will be revoked.

The other idea is to instead put a temporary moratorium on club funding rather than revoke their club status.

The final idea is to use the “carrot instead of the stick” and have incentives for clubs to attend the meetings instead of punishing them. Incentives such as donuts, or other snacks.

c. Director of Budget and Finance, Sue Jung:

i. Return of the Minions

The same minion drive as last quarter will be happening, same boxes, same location. Sue is thinking about changing one location of the boxes from the ARC to either CC1 Vista or CC3.

The interim date is February 20th – 27th.

d. Director of Government Relations, Cassie:

i. Legislative advocacy day

Went to Olympia and met with some legislators, met with Guy Palumbo and others. Gave the WACTSA agenda to several of these legislators. Discussed a bill for consent education in high schools which is shown to prevent sexual assault in colleges. Cassie was informed that “technically” there already exists such education, but it is limited, vague and hard to enforce. Is looking at models of other such programs like the “yes means yes” programs in New York and California.

ii. International women’s day

March 8th is international women’s day. Cassie is thinking of doing something around highlighting women involvement in politics and the different systems and level of government. Zainab would like to collaborate with Cassie on that idea.

Include some discussion about feminism

e. Director of Pluralism and Inclusion, Zainab Alhassani:

i. Coffee and Tea with CSG

Coffe and Tea with CSG will be tomorrow (Thursday February 2nd) with donuts and apples too this time.

ii. Election debrief

February 28th will be the first election debrief, March 7th will be the second. Location for either is still TBD.

iii. Class room visits

Got a response from David Ortiz, and is looking forward to having a class visit.

iv. Cultural talk

Zainab is looking to collaborate with a professor For a CC Real Talk.

f. Director of Public Relations and Technology, Eric Dimitrovich:

i. Meyers Briggs Personality Test

Shared a potential idea of purchasing a booklet that went in depth discussing the different personality types. Was thinking this would be a good idea to provide for all of student life and the cost would be around $150.

ii. Screenings

Moving along with the process of having the screenings.
