- i. Talked about Club Council constitution amendments

One of the suggestions during the meeting was to put “more weight” on the probation. Another idea was to have those clubs who were on probation have to do “chores” a.k.a volunteering in the ARC.

An idea was to hold the club leaders more responsible. The most popular idea for the constitutional amendment was the second option, which was to withhold funding.

Daniel is also considering making some edits for the Club Council meetings to make them run more smoothly:

- Keeping time limits for agenda items
- Keeping time limits for clubs' reports
- Have clubs turn in their reports, like the Student Life members often do.
