V. Special Guests –

VI. Officer Reports –

a. President (Vacant):

b. Vice President (Kimberley):

i. Meeting with Dr. Murray

1. Kim discussed parking with Dr. Murray. Donuts and Dialogue is coming up to introduce students to campus security. Planning to have the event every month. James Anderson suggested that the students that already work in commuter services can take on the peer group security escort group responsibility.

c. Director of Budget and Finance (Christopher):

i. Martin, the graduate intern, talked to Chris about volunteers for alternative spring break, a community volunteer opportunity. Martin would have more information. This will happen over the first week of Cascadia's spring break. Kira will forward the information regarding the community garden to Jaime in CAB. We will also find out how many representatives are needed and if there are any marketing tools to distribute. Chris is waiting for an email in response to the ACLU event.

d. Director of Public Relations and Technology (Kira):

i. Parking feedback

1. Parking feedback was minimal, but helpful. Most concerns were about the price. Students preferred digital signage, with fear of the safety of students driving while using the app. Students showed positive feedback in regards to off campus parking (with a shuttle to bring students to campus) and more carpool spaces on campus, both at a discounted price.

e. Director of Pluralism and Inclusion (Lindsey):

f. Director of Government Relations (Vacant):
