Table set up had “Good Flow” –Amnesty International
“It seemed as if something was going on”. – NGIT

Phase the donuts in, at the table.

Or even better, have each club have a box of donuts and only hand out donuts to people who get donuts.

Have a sheet where they are required to attain at least 3 signatures from club representatives at tables before they can get a donut.

Traffic could’ve been better if the event would’ve been a little later.

Set up a sign by the bus stop notifying people that there is a club fair, so that people don't just walk down the road and enter through the lower level, missing the event entirely.
