BP03:04.10 Admissions Policy

Cascadia College shall establish minimum admission standards as set forth in the most current WAC 131-12-010. The college may establish additional requirements as deemed necessary for special programs, non-credit offerings, pre-college programs and/or for applicants less than 18 years of age or without a high school diploma or GED equivalent. The college policies and procedures will comply with all relevant Federal and State rules and regulations. Admission procedures will be published electronically in the college catalog.

WAC 131-12-010 Minimum standards for admission to a community or technical college

(1) Any applicant for admission to a community or technical college shall be admitted when, as determined by the chief administrative officer of the district or his or her designee, such applicant:

- (a) Is competent to profit from the curricular offerings of the college; and
- (b) Would not, by his or her presence or conduct, create a disruptive atmosphere within the community or technical college inconsistent with the purposes of the institution; and
- (c) Is eighteen years of age or older; or
- (d) Is a high school graduate; or
- (e) Has applied for admission under the provisions of a student enrollment options program such as running start or a successor program; or other local student enrollment options program.

(2) However, an applicant transferring from another institution of higher education who meets the above criteria, but who is not in good standing at the time of his transfer may be conditionally admitted to a community or technical college on a probationary status as determined by the chief administrative officer of the community or technical college district or his or her designee.
