

Consent to Redisclose Federal Tax Information

As part of an aid applicant's application for financial aid using the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form, contributors to the aid applicant's form consent to the transfer of their federal tax information (FTI)* from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) directly to the aid applicant's FAFSA form. The Financial Aid Office receives this information for use in administering financial aid awards.

The Financial Aid Office may not redisclose the FTI transferred from the IRS to an aid applicant's FAFSA® form (including to other college departments) without separate, written consent from the aid applicant. The FTI data disclosed may only be used for the application, award, and administration of aid that is within the applicant's cost of attendance. In addition, FTI data may not be discussed with any other individual without the explicit written consent of the aid applicant.

When requested by the aid applicant and on a case by case basis, this form will be used to provide consent for the applicable institution to release FTI for the indicated approved purposes only.
