

Associate in Integrated Studies Degree

Global Studies Concentration

90 Credits

The Global Studies Concentration of the Associate in Integrated Studies Degree prepares students for the myriad of academic, interpersonal, and professional opportunities and challenges posed by transformations within the world. More specifically, students who successfully complete this degree take a strong proactive step toward competency in a different language, are able to engage and negotiate multiple perspectives and analyze intercultural issues, and develop increased global awareness and a better appreciation of the common human destiny and dignity shared by all in the world.

Upon successful completion of this degree a student will be able to:

- Demonstrate interdisciplinary understanding of an increasingly interconnected world in which economies, environments, cultures, and societies are being transformed through transnational forces. The AIS-GS curriculum encourages learning of cultural, historical, socioeconomic, and political experiences in a global context.
- Better compete in professional areas which increasingly emphasize global and language training and competency. These include education, international law, business, media, sustainable development, and government.
- Access, process, construct, and express knowledge across cultures; develop an increased awareness of a global context for ideas and facts; take responsibility for encountering and mastering new knowledge
- Learn actively and gain comprehensive understanding; think critically, creatively, and reflectively in order to solve problems; communicate with clarity and originality for personal growth and productive work; and interact in diverse and complex environments and complicated, dynamic, and ambiguous situations

Completion Requirements

The Global Studies Concentration of the Associate in Integrated Studies Degree requires at least 90 credit hours in college level courses (numbered 100 or above), a minimum cumulative 2.0 grade point average, a minimum of 25 credits in residence at Cascadia, and completion of all of the requirements for this degree. Students who complete this option will earn the Associate in Integrated Studies Degree/DTA and will have a Global Studies Concentration noted on their transcript. Students must meet with an advisor to complete and submit an application for graduation.

PROGRAM ELECTIVE REQUIREMENTS

25 CREDITS

Students must complete sufficient elective credits in college-level courses (numbered 100 or above) to bring the total credits for this degree to 90, which must include 45 credits from GS designated courses. No more than 10 credits may be included from Restricted Elective list.

In addition:

1. Students must complete or show competency at (a) the 221 level in a single world language, OR (b) the 123 level in one world language and any five-credit course in an additional world language. *
AND
2. Students must complete:
 - A credit-bearing course with a globally focused community-based learning component, OR
 - A credit-bearing study abroad experience. (International students on a student visa who satisfactorily complete a credit-bearing course at Cascadia College would have completed the Study Abroad requirement.) OR
 - A globally focused internship.

*Cascadia College recognizes prior learning in world languages. To demonstrate that the world language requirement for the GS Degree has been met through prior learning, students must demonstrate equivalent language competency by

- (1) A 200-level placement on a language proficiency exam or
- (2) A high school transcript showing successful completion of the equivalent language level with a grade of 2.0 or higher or
- (3) Proof of completion of one-year of high school or one credit-bearing college-level course in a language other than English.
